Good morning ~

I personally don't believe 60 days is sufficient time to replace all of our printed material with NCUA's proposed new share insurance logo. We would first like to use our existing brochures before having to reprint. December 31, 2007, is a much more reasonable deadline for depleting our current supplies.

Changing office signs and website in 60 days is not unreasonable; however, forcing us to reprint all of our marketing and disclosure materials in this amount of time would put an excessive burden on our budget and would be a flagrant waste of our members' money.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
